We hope to have plenty of space dust (snow) for play, but if not, be prepared for a visit to our own little Martian planet! We promise that even if there is no snow your unit will have a great time. As always, we highly encourage dressing up in theme and having fun!

Every Unit/Patrol will be responsible to bring a wagon or sled in order to transport around your ten essentials to each Space Station. Don't get caught without these as they will be important to complete different tasks during your mission.

Come join the fun, award ceremony to feature categories for Best Dressed, Most Spirited, and much more.
