In Person Program Matrix (No Overnight Camping Yet)

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>BSA Day Camps</th>
<th>Outdoor/Recreation Activities</th>
<th>Youth Sports Activities</th>
<th>Small Groups/Cohorts</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>OPEN NOW</td>
<td>OPEN NOW</td>
<td>OPEN NOW</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Leadership
- Greater Los Angeles Area Council staff and volunteers

Group Size
- Limited group size (maximum 10 youth; 2 adult)

PPE
- Minimum of cloth face mask
- Individual water bottle
- Personal program supplies as recommended by activity (no sharing)
- Disposable gloves, if applicable
- Personal First Aid Kit

Forms
- BSA Med Form (A&B)
- Camp Participation Statement Form
- Pre-Event Medical Screening Checklist
- Parental Commitment to Transport

Precautions
- Directional Flow
- Sanitizer stations
- Reminders of Distancing/Masks
- Cleaning procedures
- Daily temperature checks (both campers and staff)

BSA Day Camps
- Family led by parents/guardians
- No mixing of households

Outdoor/Recreation Activities
- Limited by size of facility or space (recommended maximum group size 12 participants)
- Minimum of cloth face mask
- Individual water bottle
- Disposable gloves, if applicable
- Personal First Aid Kit

Youth Sports Activities
- Unit, Den, Patrol (SM, ASM, CM, DL, CA, etc.)
- Constant Group/Cohort Maximum of 12 youth; 2 supervising adults for non-contact sports (ex. singles tennis, golf, conditioning/training activities).
- Minimum of cloth face mask (except for during heavy physical activity)
- Individual water bottle
- Personal First Aid Kit
- While engaging in heavy physical exertion a distance of 8 ft. or greater is required
- BSA Med Form (A&B)*
- Pre-Event Medical Screening Checklist
- Unit maintains a attendance roster of participants attending each activity for contact tracing*
- Spectators 10ft and not involved
- Reminders of social distancing/masks
- Members should bring their own equipment and limit shared use. Members may engage in limited sharing of equipment, such as throwing a ball (in pairs only).
- Daily Temperature checks (both participants and staff)
- Parents and spectators remain at a distance.

Small Groups/Cohorts
- Unit, Den, Patrol, Adult Leaders
- Constant Group/Cohort maximum of 12-14* youth; 2 supervising adults
- Final youth number TBD by LA County
- Minimum of cloth face mask (except for during heavy physical activity)
- Individual water bottle
- Personal First Aid Kit
- While engaging in heavy physical exertion a distance of 8 ft. or greater is required
- BSA Medical Forms (A&B)*
- Unit maintains an attendance roster of participants attending each activity for contact tracing*
- Spectators 10ft and not involved
- Reminders of social distancing/masks
- Supervising adults do not interact with any other adults or groups/cohorts
- Prevent interactions between cohorts
- Children from the same household should be kept in the same cohort (when possible)

---

* BSA Medical Forms (A&B) and Attendance Rosters are kept by Units/Dens/Patrols. Rosters are filed with Council

Guidance: LA County Public Health Order – Sections 15i & 19 (8/21/2020)

Guidance: LA County Reopening Protocols for Youth Sports Leagues (8/20/2020)

9/3/2020 Update